A croft tenancy is an agricultural unit which is located in one of the crofting counties or specially designated areas usually consisting of a small area of land plus grazing rights in an area of common grazings shared with a number of other crofts in the local area. More detailed information regarding crofting regulations can be found by going on to www.crofting.scotland.gov.uk or www.crofting.org and Crofters (Scotland) Act 1993 schedule 2.

Badcaul is in a stunning rural area of scattered crofts and houses. The land extends from the road in the village of Badcaul to the shore of Little loch Broom and enjoys wonderful views across the loch and to Beinn Ghobhlach beyond. The croft land for sale extends to approx. 7 hectares (17.3 acres) in total.

Access to the croft is shown by the green dotted line on the plan, the croft is outlined in red. There is no planning permission on the croft.

Directions: Travelling west on the A835, turn left at the Braemore Junction on to the A832, continue for 18 miles. Turn right into the village of Badcaul then right again by the school over the cattle grid. Access near the Scottish Water building.
