Ref: 24

This semi-detached house is situated close to the centre of the town but in a quiet convenient location. Alness offers a wide variety of facilities including National supermarkets, local shops, banks, Post Office and excellent golf course on the outskirts of the town. There is a leisure centre with swimming pool based at the academy complex. Primary and secondary schooling are available in the town along with nursery and playschool facilities. Alness is noted for its very successful entries in the Britain in Bloom scheme and locally as a town with a great community spirit.

Caberfeidh was built around 160 years ago and is just a short walk from the High Street. The property was completely refurbished to a high standard three years ago, with new kitchen, bathroom, en-suite shower rooms, heating system, re-wired and a new roof. There is a large garden to the back with ample parking spaces and an area laid to lawn. The property would provide a good family home and it is also ideally suited as buy to let accommodation, a holiday let or HMO.
