Owner occupied croft which is 9½ miles distant from Gairloch and extends to approx. 1.5 acres in an elevated position on the coastline at Melvaig offering beautiful panoramic views across the Minch to the Isle of Skye, the Outer Hebrides and the Melvaig coastline. Melvaig is a rural coastal area of scattered houses and crofts.

The croft which is infilled with pink on the plan with house site indicated by a dotted line, is fenced off and has outline planning permission for a single storey house details of which can be found on the Highland Council website (planning application number 17/04243/PIP). There is a water connection on the site and other services are nearby. There is a possibility of building grants being available from the Crofting Agricultural Grants (Scotland) Scheme, look up www.ruralpayments.org and more general information regarding crofting regulations can be found at www.crofting.scotland.gov.uk or www.crofting.org

Directions: Travelling west on the A835, turn left onto the A832 just after Garve. Continue along this route until you reach Gairloch, turn left just after McColl's shop onto the B8021, approx. 9 miles on you will come to a junction with a post box, turn right and go on to the fork, turn left and go to the end of the road, there is a small parking area, the croft is through the gates ahead and to the right.
